MISSION SERVICES FOR MEN OPENED TO CONGRESS FIRST

Anacostia Church

Begun.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU, ANACOSTIA, D. C., OCT. 24.

The mission for men opened last evening in St. Teresa's Church, at V evening in St. Teresa's Church, at V and Thirteenth streets, with about 400 men in attendance. The mission for women was brought to a close in the afternoon, having been in progress for a week. During the current week the services will be for men exclusively.
The exercises were opened last evening by the Rev. Father Snyder, and the seremon was delivered by the Rev.
Father Tuohy. Congregational singing was a feature of the services, which closed with benediction of the most blessed sacrament. During the week masses will be celebrated each morning at 5 o'clock and 8 o'clock.
The evening devotions will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

The meeting of the synod of Bal-

The meeting of the synod of Baltimore, which is composed of the presbyteries of the District of Columbia, Baltimore, and Newcastle, Parwill begin this evening in the Brown Memorial Presbyterian Church, in Baltimore. Many Presbyterians from Washington city and this place will attend the sessions, which will last for three days. The Rev. George M. Cummings, the pastor of the Garden Memorial Presbyterian Church, and Alexander B. Garden, one of the elders of the church, will attend as the representatives of Garden Church. Mrs. Alexander B. Garden will be present at the woman's missionary meeting, which must be circuit judges; five elrcuit judges to take the places of those cult ujdges to take the places of these elevated to the Commerce Court, and probably a successor to Interstate Commerce Commissioner F. M. Cockrell, whose term expires in December, and who will probably retire. A lawyer will also be selected by the President to succeed the late Lloyd W. Bowers as solicitor general.

President Taft has definitely made up his mind not to name his appointees for any of these places until Congress meets. He is going over the list of name the places. Church in the evenings.

The Willing Workers' Club of the Garden Memorial Presbyterian Church will hold a Halloween social on Friday evening. There will be a business meeting of the brotherhood of the church on the same evening.

The class taught by Mrs. Arthur B. Suit in the Sunday school of the Anacostia Methodist Episcopal Church, designated as class "G," has arranged to hold a musical entertainment in the Sunday school room on Friday evening part

The contest between two sections of the Sunday school to be known respectively as the "Reds" and the "Blues" of the Garden Memorial Presbyterian Church, in order to obtain funds to assist in defraying the expenses incidental to the interior improvements to the building, was inaugurated yesterday, when Superintendent William A. Snell outlined the procedure to be followed and explained the rules governing the contest.

Alexander Garden, ir., who is ill at one of the city hospitals, following an operation, is improving rapidly.
